Facts you need to know about the FIFA Club World Cup

1. The FIFA Club World Cup is now in its eighth edition and is being held in Japan for the fifth time. The tournament, first played in Brazil in 2000, was staged in Japan from 2005 until 2008, when it then went to the United Arab Emirates for 2009 and 2010.
2. To date, three Brazilian clubs (Corinthians in 2000, Sao Paulo in 2005 and Sport Club Internacional in 2006), two Italian clubs (AC Milan in 2007 and FC Internazionale in 2010), one English club (Manchester United in 2008) and one Spanish club (FC Barcelona in 2009) have won the FIFA Club World Cup.
3. Prior to this tournament, 38 different teams have participated in the FIFA Club World Cup. Auckland City FC (NZL) and FC Barcelona (ESP) will both be competing in their third edition of this tournament. Only two other teams have managed this feat, Pachuca (MEX) and Al Ahly (EGY). Coincidentally the two previous participations for Auckland City FC and FC Barcelona were in the same year 2006 and 2009. Teams with two participations are Waitakere United (NZL), TP Mazembe Englebert (COD), Manchester United (ENG) and Sport Club Internacional (BRA).
4. Five teams are set to make their debut in the FIFA Club World Cup Japan 2011: AFC Champions League winners Al Sadd (QAT), the winner of the CAF Champions League Esperance (TUN) winner of CONCACAF Champions League Monterrey (MEX), winner of CONMEBOL's Copa Libertadores Santos (BRA) and host Japan's J-League winner, Kashiwa Reysol.
5. Dwight Yorke (TRI), Flavio (ANG) and Mbenza Bedi (COD) are the only players to score in two editions. Yorke, however, is the only player to score for two different clubs: one goal for Manchester United (ENG) in 2000 and one goal for Sydney FC (AUS) in 2005. Flavio's two goals were for Al Ahly (EGY), one in 2006 and one in 2008. Mbenza Bedi scored one goal for TP Mazembe Englebert (COD) in 2009 and the second, for the same club, in 2010.
6. Hadi Aghily from Sepahan (IRN) scored two own goals in the 2007 edition.
7. To date, Brazilian goalkeeper Dida is the only player to have won the tournament twice, with two different teams (Corinthians, BRA in 2000, AC Milan, ITA in 2007).
8. Filippo Inzaghi, ITA is the only player to scored brace in a FIFA Club World Cup final. In 2007 he scored two goals for AC Milan, ITA against Boca Juniors, ARG.
9. FC Internazionale Milano's Jonathan Biabiany's goal in last year's final against TP Mazembe Englebert (COD) was the 175th in the history of the FIFA Club World Cup. There is a strong possibility that the 200th could be achieved this year as 27 goals were scored in total in the 2010 tournament and 25 in 2009.
10. The adidas Golden Boot was presented once in 2000 and has not been awarded since. The adidas Golden Ball and the FIFA Fair Play Award, however, have been presented since the tournament's inception in 2000.
11. The first six Finals were all between teams from South America or Europe, but that run ended in 2010 when TP Mazembe Englebert (COD) played FC Internazionale Milano (ITA), thereby becoming the first African team to reach the Final of the FIFA Club World Cup.
12. Newcomer Al-Sadd Club is the first club to represent Qatar in the tournament. To date a total of 20 different countries have had representative clubs in the FIFA Club World Cup. Brazil and Mexico both have had the most clubs to compete, with four each.

Trophy

The design shows six pillars representing the teams competing in the FIFA Club World Cup – with the individual structure making reference to the winner of the competition. The graceful curves are reaching up to encompass the globe in the shape of a football – a consistent feature amongst almost all of FIFA's event trophies. The shape of the structure describes the competitive energy and athletic qualities demonstrated by the participating teams.

Competition formats

2000

- The competition was played in two rounds
- The 8 teams taking part were divided into two groups of four teams
- The system of play was a league system, each team playing one match against each of the other teams in the same group
- The top teams in each group qualified for the final. The teams coming second in each group contested the play-off for third place

2005/2006

- The competition was played in a quarter- semi- and final round
- The quarter-finals consisted of only two matches between the clubs of AFC, CAF, CONCACAF and OFC
- The two winners of the quarter-finals and the clubs of CONMEBOL and UEFA contested the semi-finals
- The losing clubs of the quarter-finals contested the play-off for fifth place
- The losing clubs from the semi-final matches contested the play-off for third place
- The winners of the two semi-final matches qualified for the final

2007

- The opening match was played between the representative club of the host association and the club of OFC
- The winner of the opening match and the clubs of AFC, CAF and CONCACAF contested the quarter-finals

History of the FIFA Club World Cup

Intercontinental and Toyota Cup

Between 1960 and 1968, the Intercontinental Cup was a competition endorsed by UEFA and CONMEBOL and contested between the winners of the European Champions' Cup and the South American Copa Libertadores. The system of play was a home-and-away series, decided by points only (the same format used by CONMEBOL to determine the winner of the Copa Libertadores final until 1987). Because of this format, a third match was needed when both teams were tied on points.

From 1969 to 1979, the Intercontinental Cup continued as a two-leg competition between the UEFA and the CONMEBOL club champions. However, it adopted the European standard method to decide the winner by adding the goals of both matches to the aggregate score.

As of 1980 and until 2004, the competition was held as a single match in Tokyo and Yokohama, Japan. It was called the Toyota Cup, named after its sponsor.

FIFA Club World Cup

The first FIFA Club World Cup was held in 2000 in Brazil with the participation of the club champions of all six confederations (AFC, CAF, CONCACAF, CONMEBOL, OFC and UEFA). In addition to those six teams, two additional competitors were invited: Real Madrid from Spain as the Toyota Cup winner of 1998 and the Brazilian host team, Corinthians, who went on to win the trophy.

In 2005 the Toyota Cup merged with the FIFA Club World Cup. This competition has since then been played under the auspices of FIFA and between the club champions from the 6 Confederations (UEFA's and CONMEBOL's representative entering the competition in the semi-finals). As from 2007 the host's top team has also participated.

In 2007, the Japanese league winner was to be included to represent the host country but since a Japanese team won the AFC Champions League, the highest placed non Japanese team of the AFC Champions League played the play-off for quarter-finals with the OFC representative
